Prior Notification Form

The examinee should complete the top portion of this form and submit a copy to the test center where the examinee will be testing. The form should be submitted at the time of scheduling so that the test center can arrange to make allowable resources available to the examinee on the day of testing. The list of allowable resources, which indicates which resources require submission of a Prior Notification Form, can be found on the TASC Test website at: <http://www.tasctest.com>. Braille, large print, or Spanish versions of the test can be arranged via the normal test scheduling process.
